TO GREET OOM PAUL.

Many Friends of Transvaal Patriot Meet at Marseilles.

AMONG THESE IS MICHAEL DAVITT.

President Kruger's Plans For the Future Can Be Learned Only From Himself as His Envoys Refuse To Disclose His Designs.

Paris, Nov. 19.—Dr. W. J. Leyds, the Transvaal minister to the courts of Europe has arrived at Marseilles to meet President Kruger who is due to arrive soon on the Dutch cruiser Gelderland. The Boer special envoys who have been visiting Europe and America seeking intervention to restore peace in South Africa arrived there Monday from Paris. Dr. Leyds at Avignon, two hours distant from Marseilles, said positively that Mr. Kruger will land at Marseilles, and not at Naples or Genoa, as has been persistently rumored. On being asked about Mr. Kruger's plans, Dr. Leyds replied: "Really, I know scarcely more about them than you do," adding smilingly, "Hereafter you must apply to the president himself for information when he gets here. One man will represent the Transvaal and one man only." Several delegates met Dr. Leyds at the railway station in Marseilles. When his carriage drove into the great interior court of the Hotel Noailles, although great crowds lined the curbs, there was no demonstration. Dr. Leyds went directly to his apartments and began to dictate answers to a huge accumulation of dispatches. More than 500 people from Berlin, Paris and Amsterdam have arrived at Marseilles, Michael Davitt among others.

Police Board Problog.

New York, Nov. 19.—The police board met at headquarters Monday in special session to consider a letter sent to the board by Mayor Van Wyck in regard to the charges made by Bishop Potter. All the members of the board were present except Commissioner Hess, who is ill. The board preferred charges against Inspector Adam Cross and Captain Herlihy. Herlihy is the captain who is alleged to have been impertinent in his reply to the Rev. Mr. Paddock of the Pro-Cathedral who asked for information.

The wall had been condemned by the building inspector and the men were engaged in tearing it down when it collapsed.

SPORTY BANKER SKIPS.

Poker Player, Race Plunger and Liked the Women.

Newport, Ky., Nov. 19.—United States Bank Examiner Tucker is in charge of the German national bank. Frank M. Brown, bookkeeper and assistant cashier, who had been with the bank 18 years, is missing, with a shortage of $200,000. His defection extends over a period of 10 years. He is a widower and has a 10-year-old son. He lived at a speedy clip and was betrayed by a jealous Cincinnati woman, who wanted to accompany him to Yellowstone park and became enraged because he took another. Brown was an inveterate poker player and race plunger.

"This bank is closed by order of the comptroller of the currency," was the notice placed on the doors of the bank before the time for opening Monday. The salient facts of the cause of the notice had been known since Sunday morning, therefore there were none of the usual scenes accompanying a run on a bank by depositors. The alleged defection of Assistant Cashier Frank M. Brown to the amount of $200,000 was so overwhelming that no depositor was foolish enough to suppose any good could be accomplished by attempting to get money from the bank.

Examiner Tucker said the defection was not discovered by him until 10 o'clock Saturday night, that both he and the bank's own experts had been unable to find anything wrong until that time. The discovery was made in comparison of Brown's individual ledger with the cashier's daily checking up. Here it was found that Brown had been forcing balances from day to day until the enormous total of $192,000 had been withdrawn from the funds of the bank.

The only bond the bank holds is that of Paris C. Brown, father of the assistant cashier, who is a well-known river man and president of the Consolidated Boat and Store company. This is an open bond, conditioned to cover any shortage by his son. It is said that though Paris C. Brown has voluntarily offered his entire property to meet its obligations, not more than $20,000 can be realized from this.

Sultan's Salute.

Constantinople, Nov. 19.—United States Charge d' Affaires Griseom was again at the Yildiz palace, Nov. 17, attending a court musicale, after which he remained and dined with the sultan, who charged him to transmit to President McKinley his warmest congratulations upon his re-election, adding that the result of the election had given his majesty the greatest pleasure, because it assured the continuation of the present exceedingly friendly relations between Turkey and the United States.

VON BUELOW'S DENIAL

Declares Germany Is Not to Blame For Chinese Imbroglio.

"IT IS TRUE" SHOUT THE SOCIALISTS

German Chancellor Makes an Emphatic Statement to the Reichstag. Says That Germany Endured Longest of All the Powers.

Berlin, Nov. 19.—In the reichstag Monday on the occasion of the present of the supplementary credit for China, Count Von Buelow the imperial chancellor emphatically denied the assertion of the inquiry made abroad that the China imbroglio was traceable to the German occupation of Kiao Chon. This statement was greeted by the Social Democrats with loud cries of "It is quite true."

Count Von Buelow expressed keen regret that such a cry was heard in the German parliament. The chancellor further declared he did not at present wish to say anything which might be prejudicial to the common objects of the powers in China, but he felt the need of placing himself in touch with the nation. Germany, he explained, had adhered to the aims and policy outlined in the circular to the allied governments. The allegation that the government had not foreseen the Chinese crisis was true. But most of the other nations likewise failed to anticipate that the storm in the far east would burst so very near or so soon. "But," added Count Buelow, "the promissory signs did not escape us. We directed the attention of the other cabinets repeatedly to these signs. We at once agreed that everything our representative in China described as necessary to take as a measure of precaution and despatched a force, offering even more than asked for. I wish to reproach no one, least of all Baron Von Ketteler, who in endeavoring most earnestly in the fulfillment of his duty to bring the chief Chinese authorities to reason, went almost without fear to his death, worthy of the land he represented and the name he bore." This statement caused long applause.

Reverting to the Kia Chow allegation, Count Von Buelow recapitulated the movements previous to royal acquisitions and expeditions of the other naval powers in China, adding: "We, with proverbial modesty, restrained ourselves longest of all the powers, even until the massacre of missionaries in Shan Tung."

Good Roads Convention.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—At the national good roads and improvement convention that opened a week's meeting in Central Music hall, an effort will be made to settle the tramp question by compelling vagrants throughout the country to work at preparing for the improvement of the highways of the different states. Resolutions are to be adopted bearing upon the subject, a uniform bill for presentation to the legislatures of the different states is to be drafted, and a committee to press the matter before congress will be named. After addresses of welcome and the responses, Martin Dodge of Cleveland, director of the officers of the road inquiry, department of agriculture, delivered a lengthy address on the subject of good roads.

COURT OF INQUIRY

Will Pass on the Clash Between McCalla and Colwell

Washington, Nov. 19.—Proceedings in the case of Captain McCalla will be by a court of inquiry and not a court martial. The navy department was advised some time ago that trouble had arisen between Captain McCalla, commanding the Newark and Lieutenant Commander John C. Colwell, formerly naval attaché at London, and now executive officer of the ship. While the department was acquainted with the fact it left the matter to the commander-in-chief of the station, Admiral Reinley, to adjust. He has now found it necessary to appoint a court of inquiry which will determine the merits of the dispute between the two officers.

Should this tribunal recommend a court martial in the case of Captain McCalla, it would be necessary to relieve him immediately from his command and order him to the United States for there is not a sufficient number of officers of the requisite rank on the Asiatic station to form a court martial for the captain.

END OF A FAROE.

Nothing Was Done About Doping as "Nobody Knewed Nothing."

London, Nov. 19.—The much advertised meeting called to consider the charge of "doping horses" resulted in a faroe. A handful of unknown "sports" and a number of veterinary surgeons composed the audience. Several of the speakers said they believed the American jockeys used electrical appliances, but no evidence to that effect was produced. The meeting finally resolved into a discussion between American and English trainers, whereupon the chairman remarked that the subject of the meeting was lost sight of and invited all present who knew anything about "doping" to hold up their hands. There was no response and there the meeting ended.

MARRIED THE DUKE.

Cincinnati Maiden Weds Young Scion Of British Nobility.

CLANDESTINE CEREMONY PERFORMED

Bride's Father and Duke's Mother Opposed the Match and Deny Its Consummation But the Church Record Is Inamutable.

London, Nov. 19.—The young Duke of Manchester and Miss Helene Zimmerman, daughter of Eugene Zimmerman of Cincinnati were married last Wednesday afternoon by the Rev. Canon Baker in the parish church of Marylebone, London, in which parish the duke lives. Owing to opposition by the relatives of both bride and groom, the wedding was extremely quiet. The Misses Helena and Effie Evans, aunts of the bride, waited on her; the duke's most intimate friends attended him. The duke and duchess and Miss Helena Evans are now at Tanderagee castle, the groom's Irish estate. The place was enfeite on their arrival; the duke's tenants welcomed him and his bride vociferously. The duke and duchess will sail for America Saturday.

Miss Zimmerman, who has been in Europe since last September, has been living with her aunts in Paris; the duke lately has been leading the life of a country squire at Tanderagee castle. Mr. Zimmerman had intended to come to England this month, when the young couple intended to beg his consent to their marriage. But a few days ago he cabled he could not get away and the duke and Miss Zimmerman decided to wed immediately.

The marriage was by special license, no banns being published. The bride wore a handsome gown of white cloth. She wore no jewelry.

Proven by the Record.

The register of Marylebone parish shows that the reported marriage of the Duke of Manchester to Miss Helene Zimmerman of Cincinnati is true and the ceremony occurred last Wednesday afternoon. When the dowager Duchess of Manchester was asked if the report of the marriage was correct, she denied it absolutely, alleging that the announcement was made at the desire of a certain person who devoutly hoped the marriage would occur. She evinced extreme displeasure at the idea of her son marrying Miss Zimmerman. Subsequently the dowager duchess went to the church, inspected the records and found to her great surprise, the marriage had occurred.

Canon Baker, who officiated at the wedding, relates how Mr. Lambert, one of the Duke of Manchester's supporters, when notifying him of the duke's desire to be married, described the prospective bride as "an American heiress with $10,000 a year now and unlimited prospects, as her father is one of the richest men in America." In reply to questions by Canon Baker, Mr. Lambert admitted that Miss Zimmerman's parents were not aware of the intended marriage, but as he produced a license issued by the archbishop of Canterbury, Canon Baker could not do otherwise than marry the couple.

Zimmerman Says: No.

Cincinnati, Nov. 19.—Eugene Zimmerman, vice president of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railway, says he has nothing to say regarding the report of the marriage of his daughter Helene to the Duke of Manchester, except that he has not been advised and knows nothing of it. Mr. Zimmerman is a widower and very wealthy, and occupies a mansion on Mount Auburn. Helene is his only child.

As against 1,300 entries last year, there are nearly 1,500 this season.

GOOD ADVICE TO BECKHAM.
 Frankfort dispatches say that Gov. Beckham is besieged by pardon seekers, but is turning most of them down. That's right. Most of the pardon seekers ought to be turned down. It is the very smallest per cent. of convicted criminals that deserve executive clemency. The young Governor should steel himself against the weakness of free exercise of the pardoning power.

Nearly every Governor does too much of this. The dreadful record of murderers pardoned by Bradley should make Beckham very careful about turning loose this character of criminals. With the bloody record that is charged up to Kentucky, and in view of the great difficulty of giving men guilty of taking human life adequate punishment, no Governor should pardon a man convicted of murder or manslaughter unless new and indisputable proof is found in mitigation of the offense. In this connection it would be well to also caution the new parole board to go slow.—Morning Democrat.

The pardoning power has been grossly abused by every Governor of this State in the last two decades. The advice given above to Governor is timely and to the point, and we hope he will give heed to it and make his administration on this point an exception to the rule.

DROUTH BROKEN.

This Section Visited by a Heavy Down-pour Last Night and This Morning.

The protracted drouth in this section has at last been broken.

The dry weather has prevailed for several months, and people throughout this section and Central Kentucky have suffered more than usual therefrom. For weeks many people in the county have been compelled to haul water from the river or the hydrants in Maysville for their live stock, and at considerable cost. Many other farmers who had a scant supply have been afraid a severe cold spell would come before the drouth was broken, and thus entail additional suffering on their horses and cattle. But this fear is all over now, and the drouth is at an end.

After two or three days of threatening clouds and many promises of the weather forecasters, the rain came last night. It began about midnight and between that and daylight it developed into a regular downpour. At 6:40 a. m. the precipitation amounted to 1.93 inches. Between 7 and 8 o'clock there was another very heavy shower, and since then a steady rain has been falling. The total at 10 a. m. probably amounted to three inches.

All the branches and creeks are running out strong and a big rise in the river and a general resumption of navigation may be confidently expected in the next few days, as the rain seems to be a general one.

What Sapp Deserves.

(Cynthiana Democrat.)

On the night of the election it is said a Republican office-holder at Louisville, named Sapp, had the impudence to send President McKinley this telegram: "You get four years more of the full dinner pail. What do I get?" If the President is a man of discernment, this man Sapp will get it in the neck. That is what he deserves.

W. R. Madison Granted a Divorce.
 In the Circuit Court this morning Mr. W. R. Madison was granted a divorce from his wife, Fannie Madison. All charges of immorality were withdrawn, and the decree granted on ground of abandonment. Mrs. Madison was restored to her maiden name, Dickenson.

SHOE FACTORY.

It Will Be Enlarged and Started January 1st.

The New Enterprise to Be Operated by Cincinnati and Maysville Capital.
 Good News.

The BULLETIN takes great pleasure in announcing that arrangements were completed Monday for starting up the shoe factory in the Sixth ward.

The factory is not only to be started up, but it is to be enlarged and operated on a more extensive scale than it was under the old management.

Mr. John C. Adamson, of this city, and Messrs. Robert and Charles Herschfeld and a Mr. Seebaum, of Cincinnati, will compose the new company. The articles of incorporation have not yet been filed and organization fully completed, but Mr. Adamson is to be Secretary and Treasurer of the company.

The Messrs. Herschfeld and Seebaum have been operating a factory in Cincinnati. In order to accommodate their increasing business, they are compelled to enlarge, and it is with this object in view that they decided to move to Maysville. All they asked was that a part of the cost of moving the machinery and from the consequent loss of time be borne by the people of Maysville, and during the last few days the sum of $500 was subscribed by the business men of our city for this purpose.

The Messrs. Herschfeld and Seebaum are all practical workmen and will assist in operating the new factory.

The present building is not large enough to accommodate the business the new company expects to do, and an addition will be built at once. With this addition the new building will be 100 feet long, about thirty-two feet wide, two stories high. Mr. I. M. Lane was awarded the contract for the addition and it is to be completed by Dec. 20th. It is the intention to have the factory in operation by the first of January.

The new company will manufacture boys' and youths' shoes, and will also make a specialty of a wooden-sole felt-lined shoe for motormen and other employees of electric railways. The company expects to turn out 200 pairs of shoes daily at the start, and employment will be given to probably fifty or more hands.

The BULLETIN wishes the new company unbounded success.

The amount of each premium will be announced later.

We have the assurance of the tobacco dealers of Cincinnati and Louisville that they will be here in large force. Even though the farmer may not be able to carry off a premium he will have a splendid opportunity of advertising his crops.

The Keystone Dramatic Company.

Commencing next Friday night we will have at the Washington Opera House the Keystone Dramatic Company. This attraction is very much above the average in dramatic ability, and comes to Maysville with more than the time-tried, well-worn stereotyped recommendations. The manager of the company says: "To keep this company at the head of all popular priced amusement enterprises we present the best balanced company organized to play at popular prices, plays heretofore given at 25 cents to $1. In order to make the efforts of this company still more pleasing to the public at large we have this year added such scenery and mechanical effects, carrying a full car-load." Friday evening, "A Soldier of the Empire" will be produced. The Keystone's run specialties between acts. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats on sale at Nelson's Wednesday morning.

Forty tomato growers of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky met at Cincinnati and made an agreement to raise the price of their product 30 per cent. over last season.

Harry Chappell, of the firm of Chappell & Waugh, dry goods merchants of Carlisle, received by express Saturday from Rev. R. Cahill, of St. Paul, Minn., a $100 bill and a note saying the money had been forwarded to the sender to be sent to Chappell, without explanation, and evidently must be "conscience" money. Mr. Chappell cannot think from what source it came.

There will be held a district meeting of the Foreign Missionary Societies of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the M. E. Church, South, in this city, beginning Wednesday evening and continuing through Thursday, closing Thursday night. Returned missionaries will deliver addresses both Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The public cordially invited to attend all the meetings.

The wife of Mr. Charles Stiles, of Shannon, died Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, aged forty-six years. She had been in poor health three years, but the immediate cause of her death was an attack of flux. Her husband and two daughters survive. The funeral will take place Wednesday at 11 a. m. (sun time) at Shannon Church, Revs. Calvert and Ross officiating. Burial at Shannon.

In the death of the late John Collins, of Sardis, the BULLETIN loses one of its oldest and staunchest friends. Mr. Collins had been a subscriber of the BULLETIN from its first edition. He was the strongest Democrat in Kentucky, and always took the liveliest interest in elections. After he became old enough to vote he missed only two elections during the rest of his life, one in 1892 on account of the death of a son and the last one, when he was bedfast.

THE LATE JOHN COLLINS.

A Deserved Tribute To One of the County's Successful Farmers and Highly Respected Citizens.

On November 15th the Sardis community saw one of its most highly esteemed citizens, Mr. John Collins, laid to rest in the beautiful Shannon Cemetery. He was born about two miles south of Elizaville, Fleming County, October 11th, 1813; married Oct. 30th, 1844, to Eliza Hubbard, sister of the late Henry Hubbard, of Maysville, at Elizaville, by Elder John I. Rogers, of the Christian Church. This old and highly esteemed couple lived to pass the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage more than six years.

Mr. Collins is survived by his wife, one sister and eight children, James, of Ewing, Charles, John, Parry, Mrs. H. W. Rees, of Ewing, Mrs. Joseph Manley, Mrs. Willis Wiggins and Miss Amelia, all of the neighborhood. The funeral services were conducted by Elders W. W. Hall and Joseph Graves.

Although Mr. Collins had never made an open confession of religion he lived a Christian life and kept the Golden Rule constantly before him. He was a devoted, tender hearted husband, brother and father, and left to his children an example of what their lives should be. He was a man of great energy and unflagging industry and had a buoyant, hopeful temperament. How many friends he had no one could recount; he won the confidence of all who knew him. The writer knew him well, and knew but to appreciate his true friendship.

Spread Like Wildfire.

When things are "the best" they become "the best selling." Abraham Hare, a leading druggist, of Belleville, O., writes: "Electric Bitters are the best selling bitters I have handled in twenty years. You know why? Most diseases begin in disorders of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, blood and nerves. Electric Bitters tones up the stomach, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, hence cures multitudes of maladies. It builds up the entire system. Puts new life and vigor into any weak, sickly, run-down man or woman. Price 60 cents. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists.

Physicians Differ Widely in Their Diagnosis of the Disease Now Prevailing at Russell.

[Ironton, O., Irontonian]

Thursday, Dr. Biggs, Health Officer of Greenup County, and a number of other physicians, after investigating the alleged smallpox cases in Russell, issued a card which stated that smallpox did not exist in the village.

Friday, Dr. J. N. McCormack, of Bowling Green, Ky., Secretary of the Kentucky State Board of Health, and other physicians made an investigation of the disease in Russell and they reported finding that smallpox does exist in the village.

No smallpox Thursday, smallpox Friday, the residents of this community and especially of Russell are trying to figure what this day, Saturday, will develop. This much is certain, Dr. McCormack's decision will have to be accepted and the disease regarded as smallpox. It is understood that the authorities of Russell will quarantine the persons affected and those who have been exposed to the disease which practically means that almost every resident of the village will be confined.

The disease, if it is smallpox, is unlike any cases ever experienced in this section. Men, women and children have it in Russell and are not compelled to take to their beds. One man in Russell, who had the disease, was heard to say that he did not lose an hour's work or sleep nor lose a meal during his illness. He visited this city several times when at his worst and knew of at least five other citizens of the village who made regular trips to Ironton while affected with the supposed smallpox.

On the last election day men with their faces broken out stood about the voting places in Russell all day and seemingly no attention was paid to them. Persons who have recovered from the disease show no evidences of recent illness. The sores do not leave the scars, invariably seen after a patient recovers from smallpox.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Items of Interest Contributed by Our Country Correspondents.

PAST LIMESTONE, Nov. 19th.—The friends of Miss Lizzie Adams regret to know that she is quite sick.

John Stewart and family, of Rectortown, visited relatives here the past week.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Stewart's Chapel.

Families of this neighborhood procuring their water supply from the hydrants of the reservoir are undergoing a new experience.

Richard C. Williams had eight barrels of flour ground at Washington mill the past week.

Edward Smith had his buggy wrecked one night recently while going to prayer meeting in company with two young ladies, by the horse getting over an embankment.

The death angel visited the home of Benjamin and Dora Sweet Thursday morning, Nov. 15th, about 2 o'clock, and claimed for its victim their third daughter, little Bettie, aged eight years and a few months. The sad news of her death was a severe shock to her many relatives and friends, as her illness dated back only a few days. Little Bettie was a general favorite. Her sunny smile and joyous disposition endeared her to all, and her death in the springtime of life is sincerely regretted. The attack of membranous croup was a severe one and her condition soon became serious, medical skill and tender nursing being of no avail. While suffering untold agony she expressed a knowledge of her coming death and was conscious until about two hours before the final summons came, which was peaceful and quiet. Little Bettie's absence from school in her first sickness was sincerely deplored by her teacher and school-mates, but when the fact became known that her bright presence would greet them no more, an affecting scene transpired. Her kind teacher, in respect to her loving memory, dismissed school, and he, with many of his pupils, attended her last obsequies. Rev. Robert Tolle, of whom Bettie was also a favorite, in pathetic and impressive tones conducted the services of affection and respect to her memory at the residence Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, where a large number had assembled to mingle their sympathy with the bereaved family, by reading a portion of the scripture and defining death in a way calculated to dispel the horrors and gloomy forebodings, making it sweet to those who die in Christ. After the conclusion of the services the lifeless remains were followed to the cemetery by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends, where the beautiful white casket, amidst a bank of lovely flowers, quietly and slowly sank to its last resting place. The bereaved family have the sincere sympathy of all in their sorrow.

When the autumn winds are sighing
And the ground is brown and bare,
We say good bye to little Bettie;
Her home is now no longer here.

A family chain is broken;
The brightest link is gone;
A mother's heart is sadly weeping,
And a home is, oh, so sad and lone.

And while we gaze on the little form
With loving, tearful eyes,
We know her spirit, so pure and sinless,
Has reached that home beyond the skies.

And as we watch the little casket
Sink slowly down without a jar,
Visions bright come stealing o'er us
Of that home so near, and yet so far.

Many hours she severely suffered,
Enduring, oh, such bitter pain;
Anxious ones tried to relieve her,
But their efforts were all in vain.

Then came to this precious darling,
When God his angel sent
And carried her back to heaven.
The treasure he had only lent.

Yes, where no pain or grief can reach her,
In heaven is perfect bliss,
And there little darling Bettie
Awaits her mother's kiss.

Then cheer thy heart, dear lonely mother,
Sorrowful and sad no longer be,
For in that home where the angels dwell
Bettie is waiting and watching for thee.

MISS NELLIE KEOHE.

[Obituary, by one who knew her.]
I am the light of the world, the savior said;
Go tell it to the soul sin tossed;
I am the bread of life, the living head;
I am to seek and to save the lost.

One by one we're passing onward
O'er the restless stream of time,
From a world of sin and sorrow
To eternity distant clime.

One by one our loved ones leave us,
In this dreary world to roam,
Leaving many broken hearted;
Leaving many a saddened home.

One by one they leave us waiting,
Passing through death's valley dim,
One by one, why should we murmur?
Jesus calls them unto him.

Woman's Horror

Modest women dread to consult a doctor about diseases peculiar to their sex. They have a horror of private examinations and surgical operations. For this reason treatment of dangerous derangements is neglected. But the Wine of Cardui treatment, which can be adopted at home without the knowledge of any one but the patient herself, is now coming into general use. Women who take Wine of Cardui do not have to submit to a physician's local examination nor to a surgical operation. Wine of Cardui cures in the privacy of the home. No publicity, no cutting and torture and no physician or examination, while Wine of Cardui is quietly building up and strengthening the female organs. Menstruation is regulated, the drains of leucorrhoea stopped and the fallen womb restored to its place. The terrible pains which rack the body are but results of the ailments, which yield so readily to the soothing properties of Wine of Cardui. The medicine that cured Miss Garlen will certainly help you.

Wine of Cardui

Rockford, Tenn., Aug. 16, 1899.
I have suffered from womb trouble for five years. Last spring a year ago I was bedfast for six months. I paid $52 to one doctor, and he said he had done all he could for me. I had about given up, but called another doctor, who said I would have to have surgical treatment. I decided I might as well die a natural death as that. I happened to get nine days after I commenced taking Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught I could walk across my room, and in three weeks I made myself a dress. This was after my neighbors, and even my brothers and sisters, said I would never be any better. I am now in good health.
